Former State Center resident dies in California

November 16, 1922 *State Center Enterprise

Louis Holveck, formerly a resident of this vicinity, died Friday at his home in Turlock, Calif., of pneumonia. The body was brought to State Center Monday for burial.

Mr. Holveck was born in Alsace-Lorraine, April 19, 1837. He served with the French army in the war of 1870-71, when Alsace-Lorraine was lost to France, and in the world war, when Alsace-Lorraine was regained, his grandson, a son of Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Moore, of Glenwood Springs, Col., served in France with the American expeditionary forces.

Mr. Holveck resided on a farm ten miles northwest of State Center until fifteen years ago, when he moved to California.

After coming to America Mr. Holveck married Laura Robinson, who died twenty-four years ago. The following children survive: Mrs. A.E. Moore, Glenwood Springs, Col.; Joseph and C.M. Holveck, Zearing; Mrs. E.C. Gaunt and David Holveck, Turlock, Calif.; John Holveck, Union; Daniel Holveck, Marshalltown.

The funeral was held Tuesday at St. Joseph's Catholic church of State Center and burial was in the church cemetery.
