

ROBERT HOVEY SUNDAY, 81

R.H. "Bob" Sunday, of 1502 River Blvd, Marshalltown died at his home March 29, 2008.

Bob was born in Minneapolis MN April 22, 1926, to C.W. "Bill" and Margaret Sunday. Bob was a well-known Contractor and Designer through his firm Marshall L u m b e r Construction. Through the years he was a board member and officer of numerous Church and Civic organizations. Bob was a long-time Rotary song leader and bugler at military funeral services. Piloting his motor-glider, racing his sail boat in Chicago Lake Michigan, ice boating at Clear Lake, Architecture Argentine Tango and creative promotions were his joys. He was a four year Navy Veteran and a graduate of Northwestern University also later graduate work in Architecture at Iowa State University.

He is survived by his wife Susan, children, Margaret and Walter, granddaughter, Sevetlana, son-in-law, Pete, and sister, Lenora Brown.

Bob has donated his body to the Iowa University School of Medical Science and Research, Iowa City. A memorial celebration will be held at the Whitehill Hall at the Iowa

MARSHALL COUNTY SUN

Veterans Home in April. Check later for details at www.vogelfuneral-homes.com or call the Pursel-Davis Funeral Home & Crematory in Marshalltown. Memorials may be directed to the Central Iowa Art Association or the Iowa River Hospice.

