

Funeral Services Will Be Friday For Mrs. Hoy

Alice
1972
RHODES — Mrs. William (Alice) Hoy, 68, Rhodes, died Tuesday morning, Dec. 5 at Community Hospital East, Marshalltown.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday at Pursel-Davis Chapel, Marshalltown, with the Rev. Nancy Nichols in charge. Burial will be in Rose Hill Memorial Gardens.

She was born Feb. 1, 1904, in Alton, Ill., a daughter of Harry Wood and Ina Bundy Wood, and came to Iowa, where she was reared in Fort Dodge, Corwith, and State Center areas.

On Mar. 7, 1921 she was married in Marshalltown to Mr. Hoy and he survives with eight children. They are Mrs. Edna Bloodgood and Mrs. Marvin (Juanita) Meyer of Rhodes, Mrs. Howard (Lois) Essen of Arvada, Colo.;

Harlan L. Hoy of Riverdale Hills, Md.; Mrs. Kenneth (Claudia) Nichol of State Center, Mrs. Willa Kingery of St. Anthony, Ronald E. Hoy of Belton, Mo., and Roger D. Hoy of Whitman AFB, Mo.

There are 33 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Edna Hoy of Marshalltown and seven half sisters and two half-brothers. Her parents and one sister preceded her in death.