Mrs. D. W. Hubbard Was Called By Death

The entire community was greatly shocked and saddened Wednesday when it became known that Mrs. D. W. Hubbard had passed away shortly after noon at Iowa Lutheran hospital in Des Moines, where she had been taken Sunday morning, undergoing an operation the same day.

Mrs. Hubbard, wife of D. W. Hubbard, manager of the Collins branch of the Spahn & Rose Lumber Co., was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Persinger of Whiting, Iowa. She would have been 28 years old next July.

She was born at Emerson, Neb., later moving with her parents to Whiting.

On Sept. 26, 1931, she was united in marriage to D. W. Hubbard, and they came to Collins in July, 1932. Mrs. Hubbard was an active worker in the Church of Christ, and will be greatly missed by all.

She leaves to mourn their loss her husband; one son Ronald, 3 years old; her parents; one brother, C. R. Persinger, and one sister, Miss Lucille Persinger.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Church of Christ at Whiting, in charge of the Rev. M. C. Miller, who officiated at her marriage.
