

H. H. HUFFAKER FUNERAL HELD SUNDAY

Funeral services were held at the Collins Church of Christ Sunday afternoon for the late Harrison H. Huffaker, 58, who passed away Friday after an illness of several months. The Rev. Wm. Stevens of Washington, Ia., was in charge.

The services were largely attended, for Mr. Huffaker was a man highly esteemed by all, and it was a saddening shock to the community when news of his death was learned.

Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. K. W. Tomlinson, Miss Calla Wood, G. E. Holmes and T. E. Huntrods, with Mrs. Hugh Fertig as pianist. The many beautiful flowers were cared for by Mrs. Milton Hale and Mrs. Francis Butler.

Pallbearers were Ray Evans, Will Evans, Ray Brown, Myrl Brown, E. S. Haas and Everett Ball. Interment was in Collins Evergreen cemetery.

(The Gazette hopes to print the complete obituary next week.)

Henry Harrison Huffaker, eldest son of J. W. and Jane Huffaker, was born May 13, 1881, at Princeton, Ill. and passed away August 11, 1939, aged 58 years and 3 months. At the age of six he came with his parents to Marshalltown, Ia., where they resided four years. They then moved to Bird City, Kans., remaining there two years. Returning to Iowa, they lived at Zearing for a time.

In 1898 the family home was established about five miles southwest of Rhodes, and this vicinity was Mr. Huffaker's home since that time.

In 1910 he was united in marriage to Miss Vera Cooper, and the wife and seven children survive. The children are Mabel Pyle of near Baxter; Ruth Cummings and Dale Huffaker of Farrar; Leon, Harold, Richard and Alice Mae, at home. There are six grandchildren.

He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Walter Pitcher of Zearing; one brother, C. F. Huffaker of Rhodes, and one half-brother, Jake Huffaker who lives in Illinois. One sister, the late Dr. Mae Huffaker-Pitcher of Tama, preceded him in death.

Mr. Huffaker was a member of the Church of Christ of Collins and was known and respected for his upright character. He was a bus driver for the Collins schools for eight years and threshed in the community for 30 years. His passing leaves a void that cannot be filled and his neighbors and many, many friends sincerely mourn his death and extend their sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Deceased was a loving companion and father, willing to sacrifice all for his home and family.
