Obltuary of J. H. Huffaker.

Funeral services for J. H. Huffaker, who died at Independence, Sunday were held from the Willow Creek church Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in charge of Elder J. F. Min-tun of Des Moines.

A mixed choir chosen from Collins churches furnished music, accompan-ied by Mrs. O. B. Patterson.

Jacob Huffaker was born Mar. 11, 1853 near Princeton, Ill. Here he grew to manhood and married Jane C. Breeden June 28, 1876. They continued to live near Princeton for twelve years, when they moved to Marshalltown, Ia, thence to Bird City, Kansas, thence to Zearing, Iowa, and in 1898 settled on a farm in the south west corner of Marshall Co., Ia., where they have since re-sided.

Mr. Huffaker is survived by his widow and five children: Mrs. Walter Pitcher, Miss Mae Huffaker, Harrison H., and Cyrus F., all of Collins, and J. M. Huffaker of Marshalltown. One brother Cyrus, of Princeton, Ill. and one sister, Mrs. Sophia Zearing of Fort Worth, Texas, also survive, but neither were able to come at this time.

Attending the funeral from a dis-tance were Mrs. Cyrus Huffaker and two sons of Princeton, Ill., J. M. Huffaker, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Roupe, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spratt, Mrs. Geo. Pitcher and Mr. Henry Pitcher, of Marshalltown.

The neighbors and friends of the deceased wish to express their sincere sympathy for the bereaved relatives.
