Obituary

Elizabeth Ann Huntrods was born near Jacksonville, Illinois, May 31, 1885, and died at her home in Collins January 24, 1921, aged 35 years, 7 months and 23 days.

When still a small child she came with her parents locating on a farm in Jasper Co., about 4 miles south of Collins, excepting one year when she lived in Wright Co., Ia, and two years in Bourbon Co., Kansas, her whole life was spent in and near Collins.

Deceased was a model Christian girl from her youth having affiliated with the M. P. Church both in Collins and Peoria. She was for a number of years organist of the Peoria Church. While in Kansas she was a member of the Epworth League and gave valuable service in that society.

She was united in marriage to Albert C. Heintz June 26, 1918, and has resided in Collins since that time.

Deceased was a model girl and woman and as Mrs. Heintz, has been a true and model wife.

Her sweet and loving disposition, and her willingness to help others endeared her to all who knew her. Her friends were all who knew her, her enemies none. She died as she had lived in the Christian faith and hope.

She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, her mother, three brothers, one sister, several nephews and neices, other relatives and friends innumerable.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. Church in Collins conducted by Rev. C. J. Nutt, of Des Moines assisted by Rev. Paul McDade of the M. E. Church. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery.
