

Vernon Edwin Huntrods, 5, of 580 19th St., Nevada, died Saturday, Dec. 29, at his daughter's home in Castle Rock, Colo.

Born April 10, 1914 to Thomas and Gertrude Long Huntrods, he was a member of the Collins class of 1912.

Mr. Huntrods married Pearl Chitty Jan. 1, 1936 in Collins and lived all except seven years of his life in Story County. He was in the farming and agriculture fertilizer business. He was a member of the Nevada Christian Church.

Survivors include his wife,

Pearl of Nevada; three sons, Norman, Steve and Stan, all of Nevada; two daughters, Judy Selheim of Castle Rock, Colo., and Sandra of Nevada; three sisters, Jessie Heffelfinger of Mingo, Maxine Haley of Nevada and Wanda Carlson of Colo; and eight grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, William.

Services will be Wednesday, Jan. 2, at 11 a.m. at the First Christian Church, Nevada, with Pastor William Bass officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery, Collins.

The family and friends will meet at the Ryan Funeral Home Tuesday, Jan. 1, from 7-9 p.m.