Wanda Jean Hutt

Jan. 26, 1918-March 7, 2003

Wanda Jean Hutt, 85, of Ames, died Friday, March 7, at her home.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 11, at First United Methodist Church in Ames, with the Rev. Dan Stipp officiating. Burial will be in Ames Municipal Cemetery.

Wanda Jean Hutt was born Jan. 26, 1918, in Woodward, the daughter of Donald and Bessie (Weyer) Wright. She was a longtime Ames resident. She married Charles L. Hutt Dec. 5, 1937, in Missouri. She worked at the Ankeny Ordnance Plant during World War II. She worked as a dental assistant for Dr. Walters until her retirement in 1970. She was a member of First United Methodist Church and Order of the Eastern Star.

She is survived by one daughter, Judy McClure of Ankeny; seven grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1973, and one son, Terry Hutt, in 1982.

Visitation will be after 4 p.m. today at Adams Funeral Home in Ames, with the family present from 6 to 8 p.m.

Memorials may be directed to The Arthritis Foundation.

Adams Funeral Home in Ames is in charge of arrangements.
