

Noah Hyatt is dead at age 87, rites were Mon.

Noah Hyatt, 87, of Collins died Thursday, July 2 at the Bryant Nursing home in State Center after an illness of nine months.

Services were held at 10 a.m. Monday at Brouhard Funeral Home in Zearing. Rev. Wilton Grant of Collins officiated. Burial was in the Collins Evergreen Cemetery.

Casket bearers were Forrest Luing, Roger Hartrod, Earl Horton, William Barrett, Harold Hale, and Irvin Pharas. Mrs. Hugh Fertig was organist. Mrs. Donald Carlson was soloist.

Hyatt was a lifetime resident of Collins community and had farmed until the age of 80. He was a fifty year member of Collins' Masonic lodge.

Hyatt is survived by his wife Maude, one brother Sam of Kellogg, one sister Mrs. Mary Westman of Marshalltown, and a number of nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Noah Hyatt, one brother John, and two sisters Laura and Adeline.

Hyatt, Noah

d. 1970