

Liberator: April 27, 1899

The State Board of Health has made a ruling no body can be interred in any cemetery without a permit from either the coroner, health commissioner or attending physician. This permit must be certified to before the township clerk or city recorder. Our physicians have been notified that the rule will be rigidly enforced from now on.