FRANCES JANES

Collins

Mrs. Frances Janes, 90, of 704 Main Street, Collins, died early Monday morning, January 26, 2004 at the Mercy Hospital in Des Moines. Funeral services and a celebration of her life will be held at 11 a.m.

Thursday at the St. Paul Lutheran Church in State Center, with Pastor Gary MacManus officiating. She will be laid to rest in the Hillside Cemetery at State Center.

Friends may call at the Wensel-Perrin Funeral Home in State Center from 6 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday with the family present at that time. Memorials may be directed to the church in her memory.

Born Frances Wiese on March 16, 1913 in White Lake, South Dakota, she was the daughter of Henry and Henrietta "Hattie" (Allspach) Wiese. At a young age, her family moved to Iowa where she received her education. She later graduated from the Baxter High School.

On June 22, 1931, she was united in marriage to Theodore Janes in State Center. Mrs. Janes was employed at R.H. Donnelley Co. in Nevada until retiring in 1974.

Frances will be fondly remembered as a loving wife, mother and grandmother who enjoyed quilting with the quilting circle at the church, her ladies group of the church, and was a member of the St. Paul Lutheran Church, the SNEA Club, and the Collins American Legion Auxiliary. She will be greatly missed by many.

Left to mourn her loss are her children, Ronald (Jean) Janes of Collins, Judith "Judy" (Richard) Bishop of Indianola and Joanne (the late Arnold "Arnie") Bell of Cambridge; nine grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren; as well as her only surviving brother, David Wiese of Nixa, MO.

In death, she has rejoined her beloved Theodore; her parents; her grandson, Kevin Groomes; and brother, Ferdinand.
