Mrs. Landis

Dead At 65;

Rites Pending

Wed Mar 11, 1959

Mrs. Leonard L. Landis, 65, of near Bangor died unexpectedly at her home Wednesday evening. She had been in failing health for the last two years and her death was attributed to a heart condition.

Born Hallie Johnson, August 30, 1893, in Dillon, she was the daughter of John A. and Anna Pochusty Johnson. At an early age she came with her family to a farm near Melbourne where she attended rural school and was graduated from the Rhodes High School. After her graduation, she attended Iowa State Sollege in Ames.

ON MARCH 14, 1917, in Rhodes, she was married to Leonard L. Landis and they lived in the Rhodes Community until 1939 when they moved to their present home near Bangor where they had lived for the last 20 years.

Mrs. Landis was a member of the Methodist Church and in recent years had attended the Friends Church in Bangor.

Preceding her in death were her parents.

SURVIVING ARE her widower, five sons, Dr. Lloyd Landis of El Monte, Calif., Lyle E. and Harold R. of Buena Park, Calif., Donald of Marshalltown, Marion of Gladbrook, and three daughters, Mrs. Oliver Jerdt and Mrs. James Woods, both of Marshalltown, and Mrs. Richard Denby of Tucson, Ariz.

Also surviving are 26 grandchildren, three sisters and five brothers, Mrs. Clarence Rue and Mrs. Carl Moser, both of Waterloo, Mrs. Leo Pothast of Van Cleve, Archie of Baltimore, Me., Roy, of Wisconsin, Worney of State Center, Roscoe and Charles Johnson, both of New York.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Estel-Perrin Funeral Home where friends may call for further information.
