About a year ago, I received an e-mail from George Keagle telling me about the "invisible hand" that just keeps pushing us along and encouraging us to "do the right thing." To be a good friend when "real" friends seem hard to come by. To do something nice for someone just because we want to do something nice for them. To help when help is needed and we are in a position to provide that help. Walter S. Keagle has been the recipient of that "invisible hand" for several years, and I am sure George, Jackie and their families will really miss him! He was surrounded by those he loved, and passed away at home in Des Moines, March 28, 2008. Walter was 98 and our Collins Postmaster for many years. He donated his body to the University of Iowa Carver College of Medicine for scientific purposes.
