AMOS J. KENDIG

Amos J. Kendig, 73, passed away at his home in Collins Feb. 28, death coming after an illness of about a week with flu and other complications.

He was united in marriage to Miss Flora Witmer on Feb. 28, 1893. (His death came on the 46th anniversary of their marriage.)

Three children were born to this union, the son, Ralph, passing away on Nov. 8, 1913. Two daughters, Mrs. J. I. Kimberley of southeast Collins and Miss Mabel Kendig of Kalamazoo, Mich., survive him.

Besides his wife and two daughters, he is survived by one grandchild; two sisters, Mrs. J. R. Witmer of Collins and Mrs. G. L. Rumbaugh of Mingo; two brothers, S. M. Kendig of Elkhart, Iowa, and A. L. Kendig of Spokane, Wash.

In the death of Mr. Kendig, the community loses a citizen of fine character and innumerable good qualities. His passing is mourned by countless friends who extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.
