

Charles B. (Chuck) Kimberley

Charles B. Kimberley, 64, of rural Collins died at this home on Sunday, March 12, 1989. Kimberley's last illness was related to an apparent heart attack.

He was born on May 19, 1924 in Collins to Charles H. Kimberley and Daisy Pearl Nowning. In 1947 he married Leola Coakly.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Boone, IA, and a veteran of WWII serving with the U.S. Marine Corp League, Moose, and the Elks. In 1973 he moved to Collins where he farmed and continued to operate the Chuck Kimberley Auctioneer business in Boone, which he had started in 1950. While living in Boone he owned and operated the Boone Sales Company for 20 years.

Survivors include two daughters, Marsha Samuelson of Wilmington, DE and Denise Riker of Jewell, IA; two sons, Roger Kimberley of Houston, TX and Don Kimberley of Albuquerque, NM; two brothers, George Kimberley of Collins and William Kimberley of Ft. Dodge, IA; one sister, Daisy Mary Bullard of Maxwell, and seven grandchildren.

Services were Wednesday at Stark-Welin Chapel with Rev. Gerald LaMonte officiating. Interment was in the Peoria Cemetery in Maxwell, IA.