

FRED KIMBERLEY DIES AT AGE 67; RITES SATURDAY

Fred Kimberley, 67, a lifelong resident of this community, was dead on arrival at the Skiff Memorial Hospital in Newton Wednesday afternoon.

He had a heart attack while riding in a car driven by his wife about nine miles north of Newton. An ambulance was called and he was taken to the hospital.

Services were held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Christian Church. The Rev. Ron Dakin, pastor, and the Rev. James Louk, pastor of the Methodist Church officiated. Burial was in the Peoria Cemetery, south of Maxwell.

A memorial fund is being established.

He was a farmer in the Collins community and was an agent for the Iowa Mutual Tornado Ins. Co., for 30 years.

Survivors include his widow, Verda; four daughter, Mrs. Lois Altes, Mrs. Carol Long, Mrs. Barbara Carroll, all of Collins and Mrs. Mildred Fretig of Bethesda, Md.; 14 grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. Ruth Goedenow and Mrs. Mildred Brinkman, both of Colo; Mrs. Minnie Maxwell of Washington, Iowa and Mrs. Kathryn Armstrong of Ames; three brothers, I. M. Kimberley of Maxwell, John B. Kimberley of Des Moines and Harold Kimberley of Colo.

Fred H. Kimberley was born Nov. 26, 1898 at Collins, Iowa. He was united in marriage to Verda Hinshaw on Feb. 29, 1920.

He spent his entire life near Collins farming and had spent many years in insurance and township duties.

Early in life he joined the Collins Christian Church.
