Obituary

Patricia Kaye Kimberley, eldest daughter of George A. and Mildred Lewis Kimberley, was born at the Lutheran hospital in Des Moines, April 3, 1942 and died in the General hospital in Des Moines June 3, 1960 at the age of 18 years and two months.

Her entire life was spent on the farm now owned by her parents. She received her education in the Collins consolidated school and was a member of the junior class. She sang in the girls' glee club and the mixed chorus; was on the staff of the school paper, a class officer, was in the cast of the junior play, and when a freshman was a candidate for the F.F.A. Queen.

As a member of the Methodist church, Pat was helpful in all the the choir and a valued helper in church activities, a member of the vacation Bible school and the MYF.

Immediate survivors are her parents, two younger sisters Beverley and Karman and her maternal grandfather, George Lewis of Colfax. Also surviving are a host of other relatives and a multitude of friends.
