

James Kimberley

Dec. 25, 1922, to Feb. 3, 1993

James B. Kimberley, 70, of Collins died of a heart attack at his home in rural Collins.

He was born to John B. and Carrie (Dunlap) Kimberley at Collins. He was a lifelong resident in the Collins area, graduating from Collins High School and attending Iowa State University for one year. He married Alta Harris on Nov. 21, 1942, at the Little Brown Church at Nashua. He was self-employed as a farmer. He was a member of the Collins United Methodist Church and was a Mason.

Survivors include his wife, Alta, of Collins; three daughters, Nancy Smith and Jean Nielsen, both of Chicago, and Kerry Funke of Norwalk; five grandchildren; and two sisters, Margaret Fisher of Twin Lakes and Blanche Bodie of Knoxville.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Howard Kimberley.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Collins United Methodist Church with the Rev. Penny Hansel officiating. Burial was in the Peoria Cemetery. Cooper Funeral Home, Maxwell handled arrangements.
