

Funeral services for James H. Kimberley, 75, of near Baxter, were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Baxter Congregational United Church of Christ. Mr. Kimberley, a longtime resident of northwest Jasper County, died Sunday afternoon at the Evangelical Hospital in Marshalltown.

The Rev. T. A. Thompson, minister of the church, and the Rev. Glenn Coleman, minister of the Baxter Bethany United Church of Christ conducted the services. Burial was in Restland Cemetery at Baxter.

Pallbearers were Harold Kimberley, John B. Kimberley, I. M. Kimberley, George A. Kimberley, Charles Kimberley and Orville Cleverley.

Kimberley, James H.
J. 1967

GOLINS

CLIPPER

Mrs. Donnell Deutsch, organist, accompanied Mrs. John Cleverley, the soloist. Flowers were cared for by Mrs. Orville Cleverley, Mrs. Wayne Brandt and Mrs. Hale Nickell.

Boyd-Nickell Funeral Home of Baxter was in charge of arrangements.

The son of William and Mary Cleverley Kimberley, he was born Nov. 1, 1891 in Northwest Jasper County and attended Jasper County rural schools.

He was married to Odessa Perry Oct. 8, 1913 in Des Moines and they resided on a farm in northwest Jasper County since their marriage.

Survivors are his wife, Odessa; two sons, Norman of Baxter and Kenneth of Marshalltown; a daughter, Mrs. Vern W. (Naomi) Ritzman of Hampton; five grandchildren, Kayleen Kimberley, Lynnette Kimberley, Shirley Kimberley, Karen Kimberley and Vernon Ritzman; a brother, Jadie W. Kimberley of Collins; and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Pearson of Maxwell and Mrs. Stanley (Nettie) Beals of Collins.

He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, John I. and Sam Kimberley.