Mrs. M. A. Kintz who died last Saturday at her home in Colfax, was in her 59th year, and had been ill for nearly a year. She was a native of Illinois, and the wife of George W. Kintz, for whom she bore five children. Two daughters and a son survive her. She was a good wife, mother, neighbor and friend, a patient industrious housewife, who loved her home, and a devout member of the Christian church. Her funeral took place last Monday, the services being from the Howard Street Church, and interment was at the Kintz graveyard near Clyde, where her husband and two children lie at rest.—Colfax Clipper Jan. 29.
