Obituary of Mrs. P. A. Kitchell.

Mrs. P. A. Kitchell died at her home, Britt, Iowa, last Friday and the body was brought to Collins Saturday. The funeral was held at the Christian church Sunday afternoon, many of her old neighbors and friends being present to pay their tribute of respect to a good woman, whose later years was burdened with sickness and debility. Deceased was a faithful wife, devoted mother, with a loving heart for all her dear ones, a kind neighbor and friend. The beautiful floral offerings also testified to the esteem in which she was held.

The preacher, Rev. L. A. Fleming, read the following short biography: "We are called to pay the last tribute of respect to Lucetta L. Kitchell, born March 9, 1841, died August 4, 1916, aged 75 years, 4 months and 25 days. She leaves to mourn their loss, her husband, two sons, Edward of Britt and Warren of Collins, three daughters, Mrs. Charles Darling of Rhodes; Mrs. John Jackson of Mora, Minn; and Mrs. Andrew Stevens of Britt, Iowa; two brothers. Two daughters preceded her in death. Sister Kitchell was converted at the age of fourteen years and was a member of this church ever since it was first organized. Her health began to fail twelve years ago. When the death angel knocked she was ready to go."

Rev. L. A. Fleming read for the scripture lesson the 24th Psalm. His
