

Kloppenburg, Olive H. d. 1-23-2000
nee: Swalwell

Des Moines
Register
1-25-2000

Ames
Tribune
1-25-2000

OLIVE KLOPPENBORG

Collins

Olive H. Kloppenburg, 82, of Collins died of a heart ailment Sunday at Iowa Veterans Home in Marshalltown. Services will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Collins Christian Church. Burial will be at Evergreen Cemetery in Collins.

Mrs. Kloppenburg was born in Porter, Minn., and had lived in Collins all her life. She was a homemaker and a member and former president of Freeland-Carver American Legion Auxillary in Collins.

Survivors include a son, Larry of Marshalltown; five daughters, Peggy Lester and Myrtle Lester, both of Colfax, Elaine Stucky of Collins, Nancy Diggins of Marshalltown and Casey Schuler of Laurel; 24 grandchildren; and 34 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Nason.

Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. today at the church, where the family will be present from 5 to 8 p.m. Fredregill Funeral Home in Collins is handling arrangements.

Olive H. Kloppenburg

MAY 20, 1917 - JAN. 23, 2000

Olive H. Kloppenburg, 82, of Collins, died Sunday of congestive heart failure at the Iowa Veterans Home in Marshalltown. Services are at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Collins Christian Church in Collins. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery in Collins.

Olive H. Kloppenburg was born on May 20, 1917, in Porter, Minn., the daughter of J.B. and Fanny Myrtle (Ball) Swalwell. She was a lifelong resident of Collins. She married Nason Kloppenburg on June 21, 1936, in Baxter. She worked as a homemaker. She was a member of Freeland-Carver American Legion post at Collins for 37 years. She was president of the Freeland-

Carver American Legion post Auxillary for 12 years and president of Story County American Legion Auxillary for one year.

Survivors include one son, Larry Kloppenburg of Marshalltown; five daughters, Peggy Lester and Myrtle Lester, both of Colfax, Elaine Stucky of Collins, Nancy Diggins of Marshalltown and Casey Schuler of Laurel; 24 grandchildren and 34 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband; one son; one daughter; one brother; two sisters and one grandson.

Visitation will be from 4 to 8 tonight at the Collins Christian Church in Collins, with the family present from 5 to 8 p.m.

Fredregill Funeral Home in Collins is in charge of arrangements.