Death of Fred Knepper.

The sad news reached Collins that Frederick Knepper, son of Dr. Knepper, died Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in Berlin, Penn., where he had been staying with relatives for many years.

Dr. Knepper was apprised of the serious illness and left Collins at 3 a. m. Sunday. He reached Berlin Monday afternoon but too late to see his son alive.

The funeral and burial was at Berlin Tuesday.

Our people deeply sympathize with the afflicted father, brother and other relatives in their sorrow and bereavement. The following is the

OBITUARY

Frederick Burns Knepper was born in Peoria City, Iowa, Sept. 21, 1880. Died July 12, 1908 in Berlin, Pa., aged 27 years, 9 months, 21 days.

Freddie was an exceptionally bright child, but unfortunately when he was about four years old he became afflicted with epilepsy caused by a blow on the forehead while playing, from which he ~~suffered~~ until his death. Since his mother's death, fourteen years ago, he has lived permanently with his paternal grandma, Mrs. Elizabeth Knepper, and his aunts Margaret and Nellie Knepper, who always ministered unto his wants
