

FRANK KOLBE JR.

Marshalltown

Frank J. Kolbe Jr., 91, of Marshalltown died of cancer there Dec. 4. The body was cremated, and graveside services will be 1 p.m. Monday at Rose Hill Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Marshalltown.

Mr. Kolbe was born in Marshalltown and had lived in Iowa Falls before returning to Marshalltown in 1930. He was a retired molder with Lennox Industries.

He is survived by a son, Frank of Marshalltown; two daughters, Audrey Daugherty of Marshalltown, and Mary Sanders of Laguna Niguel, Calif.; two brothers, Dave of Radcliffe and Stan of Marshalltown; seven sisters, Shirley Wilkening of State Center, Jo Lukehart of Des Moines, Tressa Epperley of San Diego, Bernice Carielo of Riverside, Ill., Evelyn Matney of Terloch, Calif., Pauline Jessen of Independence, Mo., and Ruie Schaper of Grinnell; 12 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Ruth.

Pursel-Davis Funeral Home and Crematory in Marshalltown is handling arrangements. Memorial contributions may be made to the Frank J. Kolbe Jr. Memorial Fund.