

ROMP, Joyce A. d. 12-14-2001
(MRS. GLEN)

Ames
Tribune
12-17-2001

Joyce Arlene Romp

FEB. 11, 1921 - DEC. 14, 2001

Joyce Arlene Romp, 80, of Altoona and formerly of Randall, died Friday of cancer at the Kavanagh House on Grand in West Des Moines. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at Elim Lutheran Church in Randall, with the Rev. Jim Norem officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery in Jewell.

Joyce Arlene Kolling was born Feb. 11, 1921, near Jewell to Anton and Alice (Peterson) Kolling. She graduated from Randall High Scholl in 1939. She married H. Glenn Romp June 27, 1941, in Bethany, Mo. She worked at Collegiate Manufacturing, Carriage House and 3-M in Ames, retiring in 1986. She also had lived in Jewell.

She is survived by two sons, Donald D. Romp of Jewell and John M. Romp of San Angelo, Texas; one daughter, Geneva J. Price of Altoona; 12 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband; one daughter; one son; one brother and three sisters.

Visitation will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Becker Funeral Home in Jewell.

A memorial fund has been established for Elim Lutheran Church in Randall and the Kavanagh House on Grand in Des Moines.