

FLOYD LAFFERTY

Maxwell Tribune - April 3, 1969

Floyd Lafferty, 60, a former Maxwell and Collins resident died Thursday evening at Broadlawns Hospital in Des Moines, where he had been a patient for a week.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m., Sunday, March 30, at the Cooper Funeral Home, with Rev. David Shaeffer officiating.

Wanda Carlson accompanied by Virginia Fertig furnished the music.

In charge of the flowers were Mable Anderson and Ann Sinnott.

Casket bearers were Harold Sinnott, Russ Schauer, Wes McWherter, Ralph Vasey Forrest and Wendell Luing.

Interment was in the Evergreen Cemetery at Collins.

He is survived by three sons, Larry of Maxwell, Jerry of Des Moines and Don of Grand Prairie, Texas; one daughter, Karen, also of Grand Prairie; four grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Noah Fleet of Collins, Mrs. Thayne Evans of Nevada and Mrs. Ted Richardson of Eldon, Missouri; three brothers, Forrest of Collins, Ronald of Visalia, Calif., and Ray of Colo.

Mr. Lafferty had been employed as a carpenter at the Iowa Casket Co., of Des Moines, until he was forced to retire because of ill health.

LAFFERTY, FLOYD

Funeral 30 March 1969

Maxwell Tribune