Miss Lanning

Dies Monday; Was Teacher

MELBOURNE — (Special) —Miss Myrtle Lanning, 78, retired teacher, died Monday morning at Evangelical Hospital in Marshalltown where she had been a patient for several weeks.

SERVICES WILL be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Melbourne Christian Church with burial in the Melbourne Cemetery.

Miss Lanning was born here Jan. 29, 1886, daughter of Robert and Amanda Lanning, and was educated here later attending State Teachers College at Cedar Falls. She taught in the local school prior to going to Waterloo where she taught for 23 years, returning to Melbourne for a short time before her retirement.

SHE WAS a member of the Melbourne Christian Church, Melbourne Woman's Club, Melbourne Garden Club and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include two brothers, Elmer of Marshalltown and Willis of Boerne, Texas, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at the Ryan-Davis Funeral Home.
