

HALL, Opal B. d. 5-17-2005
(Mrs. Fredrick W.)

Nevada
Journal
5-26-2005

Opal B. Hall

Opal B. Hall, 91 of Kingston, Ill., died on Tuesday, May 17, at Kishwaukee Community Hospital in Dekalb, Ill. Graveside services were Sunday, May 22, at the Murphy Cemetery in rural Nevada with Pastor David Lincoln officiating.

Opal was born on July 14, 1913 in Gilbert, Iowa to Edwin H. and Ethel May (Bowers) Leininger. She was married to Fredrick L. Hall. Opal was a nurse at the Cape Canaveral Hospital in Florida and retired after many years of service.

Opal is survived by 2 sons, Fredrick W. Hall of Malta, Illinois and Edwin J. (Linda) Hall of Hillsboro, Wisconsin; a daughter, Yolanda Landry of Kingston, Illinois; 8 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren; a brother, Lyle Leininger of Adel, Iowa; a sister, Zelletia (Phil) Streit of Lucedale, MS; one adopted brother, Robert Leininger of Alaska; numerous nieces and nephews.

Opal was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Fredrick on December 23, 1968, and a sister Media. Chet Ryan Mortuary was entrusted with the arrangements.

May 19, 2005

Opal B. Hall

Death Notice

Opal B. Hall, 91, formerly of Nevada, died on Tuesday, May 17, at the Kish Waukeee Hospital in DeKalb, Ill. Graveside services are pending with Chet Ryan Mortuary in Nevada.

©Nevada Journal 2005

May 26, 2005

Opal B. Hall

July 14, 1913 to May 17, 2005

Opal B. Hall, 91 of Kingston, Ill., died on Tuesday, May 17, at Kishwaukee Community Hospital in Dekalb, Ill. Graveside services were Sunday, May 22, at the Murphy Cemetery in rural Nevada with Pastor David Lincoln officiating.

Opal was born on July 14, 1913 in Gilbert, Iowa to Edwin H. and Ethel May (Bowers) Leininger. She was married to Fredrick L. Hall. Opal was a nurse at the Cape Canaveral Hospital in Florida and retired after many years of service.

Opal is survived by 2 sons, Fredrick W. Hall of Malta, Illinois and Edwin J. (Linda) Hall of Hillsboro, Wisconsin; a daughter, Yolanda Landry of Kingston, Illinois; 8 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren; a brother, Lyle Leininger of Adel, Iowa; a sister, Zellettia (Phil) Streit of Lucedale, MS; one adopted brother, Robert Leininger of Alaska; numerous nieces and nephews.

Opal was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Fredrick on December 23, 1968, and a sister Media. Chet Ryan Mortuary was entrusted with the arrangements.

©Nevada Journal 2005