

Miller, Carrie O. (Mrs. Jesse) d. 6-6-1918

Collins
Gazette

6-13-1918

Carrie Oral Leonard was born February 22, 1883 and departed this life June 6, 1918 at the Ashton Farm home where she spent her life. She had been ill about a month with a complication of diseases.

Carrie was a graduate of the Collins High School 1902, taught one year in the rural schools then devoted her time to music. She studied at Newton, Drake, and Highland Park for several years.

December 31, 1908 she was united in marriage to Jesse Pearl Miller. To this union one daughter was born. Besides the eight year old child Martha Grace Miller, she leaves her father Joe Leonard and one sister Mary Leora Leonard, with numerous other relatives and friends to mourn her sad and early death. She united with the Congregational church at Ashton in 1899 and was a faithful worker in it and the S. S. to the end. She will be missed and the family have the sympathy of friends, especially do they think of the little child to whom she was so devoted.

The funeral was conducted at Ashton Sunday at 2 P. M. by her pastor Rev. Wiley who took Jer. 15 9 for a text. A double quartette sang. Charles Baker and Charity Brom rendered beautiful solos. A large crowd attended and beautiful floral offerings were profuse. Interment was in the family lot beside the mother who died November 17, 1908.

The bearers were six neighbors, Chas. Maxwell, Wm. Couch, Blaine and Ivan Mullihan, Andrew Streeter and Ira Bittner.