

Lingenfelter, George F., Sr. Died 7 Sept 1956
Lingenfelter, George F. Sr.

Lingenfelter Rites Monday at Collins

—1956

MAXWELL—George F. Lingenfelter, Sr., 66, Independence, Mo., died Sept. 7, at an Independence hospital following a surgical operation.

Gravside services were held Monday at the Evergreen Cemetery, Collins. Collins Masonic Lodge officiated.

He is survived by his wife Myrtle; two sons, George Jr., Independence, and Richard of Hickman Mills, Mo.; a daughter Barbara, at home; three grandchildren and a brother, Harold, Washington, D.C.

Mr. Lingenfelter owned a general merchandise store in Collins and later in Maxwell. He left Story County in 1929 and went to Kansas and then to Missouri.

GEO. LINGENFELTER
DIED SEPTEMBER 7

Graveside services were held Monday in Collins Evergreen cemetery for George F. Lingenfelter, sr., 66, of Independence Mo., who died on Sept. 7 in a hospital in Independence, following surgery. Services were in charge of the Collins Masonic Lodge.

The deceased will be remembered as a former general merchandise store owner in Collins and later in Maxwell. He moved from this community in 1929, going to Kansas and then to Missouri.

Survivors are his wife, Myrtle; two sons, George, jr., of Independence, Mo., and Richard of Hickman Mills, Mo.; one daughter, Barbara at home, and three grandchildren. One brother, Harold Lingenfelter, who lives in Washington, D. C., also survives.

Lingenfelter, George F. d 9-7-1956

Collins
Gazette
1956