

Link, Mrs. George 7-23-1932

Collins
Gazette
7-28-1932

MRS. GEORGE LINK
DIED SATURDAY

Mrs. George Link, Sr., long-time resident of the Maxwell community, died at her home at that place at 8 a. m. Saturday, at the age of 84 years. She had been an invalid for four years, during which time her health had gradually failed.

She was well and favorably known throughout this part of the county. Mr. Link died about four years ago.

She leaves seven sons and four daughters to mourn her passing, together with a multitude of friends. The sons are John Link with whom she made her home, W. F., Leonard, Bert and Martin, all of Maxwell, George Link, Jr., of Mingo and Charles of Merville. The daughters are Mrs. John Cairns and Mrs. A. Witmer of Maxwell, Mrs. O. H. Hawkins of Collins and Mrs. Dora Miller of Des Moines.