

Lippart, Loretta V.

April 20, 1990

Loretta V. Lippart

Loretta V. Lippart, 55, Maxwell, died of cancer April 20, 1990, at her home.

Lippart was born March 2, 1935, in Maxwell to Ray and Nadine Hennick. She married Harry Lippart on Aug. 16, 1952, in Newton County, Ark. She had lived in Maxwell for the past 20 years and had been previously employed as a machine operator at the 3M Company in Ames.

Survivors include her mother, Nadine Hennick, Maxwell; one daughter, Susan Scheuerman, Maxwell; three sons, Gary Lippart of Nashville, Tenn., Tom Lippart, Collins, and Steve Lippart, Maxwell; one brother, Richard Hennick of Deland, Flor.; one sister, Lois Bunning, Maxwell; and four grandchildren.

Visitation and a prayer service were held April 22 at Cooper-Ryan Funeral Home, Nevada. Services were held April 23 at the funeral home with burial in the Maxwell Cemetery.

LORETTA V. LIPPART

The Register's Iowa News Service

MAXWELL, IA. — Loretta V. Lippart, 55, of Maxwell died of cancer Friday at home. Services will be at 2 p.m. Monday at Cooper-Ryan Funeral Home, and burial will be in the Maxwell Cemetery.

Born in Maxwell, Mrs. Lippart had been a resident of Maxwell for the past 20 years. She was a machine operator for 3-M Co. in Ames.

Surviving are a daughter, Susan Scheuerman of Maxwell; three sons, Gary of Nashville, Tenn., Tom of Collins and Steve of Maxwell; her mother, Nadine Hennick, and a sister, Lois Bunning, both of Maxwell; a brother, Richard Hennick of Deland, Fla.; and four grandchildren.

Friends may call from 1 to 9 p.m. today at the funeral home, where a prayer service will be at 7:30 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.