Caroline Lockwood Button

Born: September 29, 1910

Died: May 05, 2005

Services will be held at: 11:00 A.M. on Saturday, May 7, 2005, at the Center Street Baptist Church, following cremation at Purse-Davis Funeral Home & Crematory. Burial at Riverside Cemetery in Marshalltown will follow services.

Caroline was born September 29, 1910, in Rock Rapids, Iowa, the daughter of A.H. and Bertha (Benedict) Lockwood. She was raised and educated in Rock Rapids and later attended the University of Nebraska. Caroline was united in marriage to Robert O. Button on June 1, 1938, in Baltimore, Maryland. During her lifetime she was a housewife and mother to her children and was a teacher at the Gladbrook and Garwin, Iowa, schools. Caroline was a member of the P.E.O. for over seventy years. She was famous for her cookies and enjoyed knitting and watching college football. Caroline is survived by her son Robert (Nancy) Button of Charlottesville, Virginia, her daughter Judith C. (Jay) Oswood of Marshalltown, her son James R. (Linda) Button of Effingham, Illinois, her six grandchildren; Kristin, Geoff, Megan, Joel, Tony and Lindsay, her five great-grandchildren Austin, Olivia, Luke Charlie and John and a great-grandchild on its way. Caroline was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Robert in December of 1997, and her brother Dewitt Lockwood.
