

OBITUARIES

Maxine L. Snyder, 79

Maxine L. Snyder, 79, of 100 6th Street in Nevada, passed away of complications from a stroke on Monday, Jan. 14, at Rolling Green Village in Nevada. She had resided at Rolling Green Village since Dec. 19, 2000.

Services were held for Snyder on Friday, Jan. 18 at the Collins United Methodist Church in Collins with burial following at Evergreen Cemetery in Collins. Fredregill Funeral Home in Collins was in charge of arrangements.

Maxine was born in Dove, Missouri, but lived in Collins for most of her life. She was a homemaker and housewife to husband Doyle Snyder.

She was a member of the Collins United Methodist Church, retired member of Collins City Council Member, served on the Collins park board, served on the Collins Betterment Committee and past president of the Collins Garden Club. She enjoyed crafts, music and reading.

Surviving Maxine are one daughter, Mrs. Pamela Wymer of West Des Moines; two grandchildren; two sisters, Geraldine Hand of Collins and Zelma Hand of La Mirada, California; and three brothers, James Holl of Mission, Texas, Jerry Looney of Springfield, Missouri, and Granville Looney of Decatur, Alabama.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the family.

Snyder, Maxine L. (Mrs. Doyle) d. 1-14-2002

Ames
Tribune
1-16-200

Maxine L Snyder

Maxine L. Snyder, 79, of Nevada, died Monday at Rolling Green Village in Nevada of complications from a stroke. Funeral services will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday at Collins United Methodist Church in Collins. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery in Collins.

Maxine L. Snyder was born in Dove, Mo. She had lived in Collins all her life. She married Doyle Snyder. She was a homemaker. She was a member of Collins United Methodist Church, was a retired Collins city council member, served on the Collins park board and Collins Betterment Committee and was past president of the Collins Garden Club.

She is survived by one daughter, Pamela Wymer of West Des Moines; two grandchildren; two sisters, Geraldine Hand of Collins and Zelma Hand of La Mirada, Calif.; and three brothers, James Holl of Mission, Texas, Jerry Looney of Springfield, Mo. and Granville Looney of Decatur, Ala.

She was preceded in death by her husband.

Visitation will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday at Fredregill Funeral Home in Collins. Memorials can be directed to the family.

Fredregill Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.