

Joseph Ernest Ludlow, son of George E. Ludlow and Ella May Ozmun Ludlow, was born April 29, 1890, and died March 23, 1955.

He was united in marriage with Ethel Tribby, Jan. 24, 1912, in Collins. For two years they made their home in Collins before moving to Burt, Ia., in 1914. From there they went to their farm at Salem, Mo., where they lived for nine years. Later they moved to Oklahoma City, where they had real estate interests and continued to live there until going to Foreman, Ark., in 1948.

Surviving are his wife, Ethel Tribby Ludlow; two sons, Dr. Clarence E. Ludlow of Braintree, Mass., and Dwain C. Ludlow of Tulsa, Okla.; five grandchildren and his step-mother, Mrs G. E. Ludlow of Ringgold, Tex.

Attending the services from a distance were Mrs Chas. Olinger and Orlando Holtby, Maxwell; Mr and Mrs John Gray, Rhodes; Mr and Mrs Eugene Tribby and Mrs Manley Smith, State Center; Mrs Wm. Shenkle, St. Anthony; Mr and Mrs Geo. Rowe, Marshalltown, and Mr and Mrs Wm. Robinson, jr. and family of Marion, Iowa.

Ludlow, Joseph E. d. 3-23-1955

Corlins Gazette 1955