

HAZEL L. LUND

Hazel L. Lund, 100, of Zearing IA, died Sunday, Jan. 24, 1988, at Colonial Manor Nursing Home in Zearing.

Funeral services were Thursday, Jan. 28, at 1:30 p.m. at Bethel United Methodist Church with Rev. Jeff Carter officiating. Burial was in the Zearing Cemetery at Zearing.

Mrs. Lund was born Nov. 12, 1887, in Phillips NE to Alfred and Susie (Witmer) Adams. She grew up on her parents' farm at Phillips and graduated from Weslyn University at Lincoln NE in 1915. She was a science teacher at Neligh NE for a number of years before her marriage to J. Archie Lund on Feb. 12, 1919, in Lodge Pole NE.

They moved from York NE to Collins IA in 1939, where they farmed near Collins until moving to Zearing in 1942. They farmed east of Zearing until retiring in 1962, when they moved into Zearing.

Mrs. Lund had been a resident of Colonial Manor since July of 1980.

She was a member of the Sorosis Club of Zearing, Bethel United Methodist Church and United Methodist Women's Circle.

Survivors include a son, John, of Zearing; a daughter, Ruth Coughenour of Ames IA; six grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Archie; a brother, Claire, and two sisters, Muriel and Lorna.

Friends were invited to call at Fredregill Funeral Home in Zearing from 7 to 9 O'clock Wednesday night.

Lund, Hazel L.
Mrs. Archie

J. 1988