

Woman critically injured in Story County crash

A woman was critically injured in a two-car crash at about 11 a.m. Sunday morning near Ames.

According to the Story County Sheriff's Office, Judy Madsen, 62, Ames, was driving northbound on Sandhill Trail when she apparently failed to stop for the stop sign at the intersection of Hwy. 30 and Sandhill Trail. She entered the intersection and was struck by a vehicle that was eastbound on Hwy. 30 driven by Laura Gibbons, 30, Colo.

The Madsen vehicle spun around and came to rest in the median, while the Gibbons car stopped partially blocking the left lane of eastbound Hwy. 30. Madsen was critically injured and transported to Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines by helicopter. Gibbons and three passengers in her car were all transported to Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames for treatment of minor injuries.
