

OBITUARIES

Wynema Malfeld, 87

Wynema Malfeld, 87, formerly of State Center and the Marshalltown area, died Aug. 7, 2002 in Wheatridge, CO. Services were held Aug. 12 at Faith Lutheran Church in Denver, CO.

Wynema was born March 3, 1915 in State Center to August W. and Anna (Riemenschneider) Eggers. She was baptized, confirmed and received her early education at St. John's Lutheran Church and school. She was united in marriage to Albert Malfeld on Feb. 7, 1937. They farmed near State Center until moving to Marshalltown. In 1948 they moved to Fort Collins, CO. They were later divorced. She did child care for numerous children in Fort Collins and later in Denver. She also was owner/operator of The White Palace Cafe in Fort Collins for six years until her health forced her to sell and move to Wheatridge.

She leaves to celebrate her life her daughter, Marlene (Dale) Junge of Wheatridge; four granddaughters, Cherrel Junge of Wheatridge; Darla (Donald) Sargent, Arvada, CO; Glenda (Steve) Piburn, Arvada; Dena Junge, Lakewood. She will also be greatly missed by eight great grandchildren and special extended family Caterina (Jeff) Hayes, Nicholas and Catelaine and Ryan Devenberg and several nephews and nieces.

She joins her parents, three brothers and one sister in the church triumphant.

Attending the funeral services in Denver were her nephew Ross Eggers of State Center; Ramona Milleson of Colo and Marlys Eggers Taylor of Grinnell.