

Rhodes Native Dies At Age 68

Kenneth D. Mallicoat, 68, Reeds Springs, Mo., a Rhodes native, died Tuesday morning at Cox Medical Center, Springfield, Mo. He had been in failing health for three years.

The body will be cremated and a memorial service will be held at Stump Kimberling City Chapel, Kimberling City, Mo., Thursday at 2 p.m.

Mr. Mallicoat was born at Rhodes May 21, 1915, the son of Vern and Isabell Breunig Mallicoat. He was graduated from Rhodes High School in 1933.

On May 5, 1940, he was married to Charlotte Ahrens at the Episcopal Church in Marshalltown, and she survives, as does a daughter, Linda Dexter, Overland Park, Kan. He is also survived by a granddaughter, Elise Dexter; a grandson, Tracy Dexter, and two brothers, LeRoy Mallicoat, Newton, and Keith Mallicoat, Lucas. He was preceded in death by two brothers.