

Mrs. Jud Malloy, 45, 1936 State Center, Dies

State Center, July 25—(Special)—Mrs. Jud Malloy, 45, died at 7:15 Friday evening at the Emma Wohler hospital in State Center following the birth of a stillborn child.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 9 a. m. at St. Joseph Catholic church at State Center in charge of Rev. Father McDonough. Burial will be in the Rhodes cemetery.

Mrs. Molloy was born Florence Goodman, May 22, 1891 at Rhodes. Following her graduation from the Rhodes high school she attended a business college in Des Moines. Her marriage to Jud Malloy took place in July, 1913. Mr. and Mrs. Malloy had lived on a farm near State Center since that time.

Surviving are the widower, nine children, Gerald, Rita, Angie, Kathleen, Robert, Mary, John, Patricia and Ruth; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Goodman of Rhodes and the following brothers and sisters: Alvin of Milwaukee, Wis., Joseph and George of Pequot, Minn., Mrs. Tom Malloy, Rhodes, Sister Rosaria, Mount St. Clare, Clinton, and a half brother, Leo, Hammond, Ind.