

ATTA MARSH

b. 15 Feb 1877

d. May 1971

50135

(Kellogg,

Jasper, IA)

478-56-9358

Iowa

Former resident of Collins dies in Kellogg Mon.

A former resident of Collins, Mrs. Atta Marsh, 94, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sam Hyatt, at Kellogg on Monday evening.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Hyatt home in Kellogg with Rev. Robert Gamble officiating. At 2 p.m. Rev. Wilton H. Grant will conduct services in the Methodist Church in Collins.

Burial will be in the Evergreen Cemetery in Collins.

Born on Feb. 15, 1877 in Strawberry, Ark., her parents were Franklin Gorham and Sarah Ann Taylor Gorham. She moved to Texas as a child and lived there and in Oklahoma, coming to Iowa in 1912. She was a resident in Collins until 1954 when she moved to Kellogg.

Marsh, ATTA

d. 1971

OVER

She was a member of the Collins Methodist Church.

She married J. Walter Marsh on Dec. 24, 1903, in Montague, Texas.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Sam (Minnie) Hyatt of Kellogg and Mrs. Lowell (Anna) Halterman of Coggon, Iowa; two sons, George E. Marsh of Sioux City and Curtis L. Marsh of Polk City; 14 grandchildren; 24 great grandchildren; two sisters, both living in Oklahoma, and two brothers, Edgar Gorham of Chandel, Old Mexico, and Josh T. Gorham of Decatur, Texas.

Preceding her in death were her husband in 1925; her parents; one sister and three brothers.