Ethel was born August 22, 1911 in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada the daughter of Clarence and Mary (Rankin) Howland. She was raised and educated in Rolfe, Iowa, graduating from Des Moines Township School. She attended business school in Des Moines, Iowa, later working at the J.S. Hagen Agency in Des Moines. On February 18, 1953 she was united in marriage with Willard Martin. They farmed in and around the New Providence area their entire married life. Ethel was a member of the Honey Creek-New Providence Friends Church. As a young woman, she enjoyed dancing which is how she and Willard met. She was an avid bowler, winning many trophies and patches. She spent many hours playing cards with family and friends. A lover of all animals, her greatest love and enjoyment came from the many cats that she mothered over the years. Ethel Martin is survived by sisters-in-law Alice Rowley of Atlantic and Luanna Strickland of Odenton, Maryland and brother-in-law Neil (Peggy) Martin of Marshalltown. She is further survived by twenty-three nieces and nephews, forty-five great nieces and nephews, many great-great nieces and nephews and many longtime friends. Auntie will be especially missed and lovingly remembered by Jerry, Ron, Bob, Linda and Pam and their families as well as her beloved cats, Boots and Missy. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Willard, her sister Isabel Jensen, her brothers: Albert Howland and Francis Howland; sisters-in-law Viola Howland, Marie Howland, Frances Martin and Marjorie Martin; brothers-in-law James Jensen, Gilbert Martin and Robert Strickland and a cousin, Marcella Yabsley, of La Crosse, Wisconsin. Memorial contributions may be directed in her name to the Alzheimer's Foundation, or the Honey-Creek New Providence Friends Church.
