

MAXwell, Harold

J. 6-27-1942

Collins
Gazette
7-02-1942

Harold Maxwell, 14, Died
From Injuries Received
During Storm

Harold Gene Maxwell, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verne F. Maxwell, who live a mile north and 2 miles west of Rhodes, died at the Deaconess hospital, Marshalltown, shortly before midnight Sunday from injuries sustained during the storm early Sunday evening, when he was crushed beneath a heavy tree trunk blown over during the storm.

The lad had gone out from the house to look after his pet rabbits and had just passed through the gate on his way back to the house when the tree blew over and he was pinned beneath.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. at the Iowa Center church, with the Rev. C. E. Lookingbill in charge. Burial was in the family lot in the Iowa Center cemetery.