

C. E. Maxwell

May 31, 1910, to May 10, 1993

C. Earnest Maxwell, 82, of Collins died of complications of cancer at his daughter's home in Prairie City.

He was born in Clear Lake Township (Ashton Community) in Jasper County to Charles A. and Mary L. (Stock) Maxwell. He attended the Ashton School. He married Elizabeth M. Tomlonovic on June 3, 1938, in Colfax. He was a retired farmer; he had been owner and operator of the farm. He was a former member of Sugar Grove Grange, had sold Pfiester Seed Corn and was a Northland Oil Salesman.

Survivors include his wife, Elizabeth "Betty" M. of Collins; his daughter, Donna Huffaker of Prairie City; two grandchildren; two brothers, Ralph of Mingo and Forrest of Collins; two sisters, Myrtle Denman of Bradenton, Fla., and Ruth Sonner of Des Moines.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one daughter in infancy; two granddaughters; five brothers, Frank, Henry, Leon, Clarence, Howard, one in infancy and one sister, Daisy Santen.

Services were held today (Thursday) at Wallace-Pence Funeral Home with the Rev. Robert Hinshaw, pastor of Ashton Chapel in rural Baxter officiating. Burial followed in the Restland Cemetery, Baxter. Memorials may be made in his name.