

MRS. JAMES MEAD LAID TO REST

Funeral services for Mrs. James Mead were held from the Collins United Brethren church, of which she was a member, last Thursday afternoon, Sept. 10, at 2 o'clock, in charge of the pastor, the Rev. Z. Hougham. Interment was in Collins Evergreen cemetery.

Viola McClees, youngest daughter of William and Amy McClees, was born January 6, 1879, near Collins, Iowa, and departed this life at her home in Collins, Sept. 8, 1931, at the age of 52 years, 8 months and 2 days. Her entire life was spent here, and she was blessed with a multitude of friends, who mourn her departure and sympathize with the bereaved relatives.

On Dec. 30, 1925, she was united in marriage to James Mead.

Besides her husband she leaves to mourn her death two sisters, Mrs. Etta Shearer and Mrs. May Etnier, a brother-in-law, Arthur Etnier, four nieces and four nephews, besides many other relatives and friends. Her parents had preceded her in death.

Mrs. Mead had been in poor health for about three years, and for the last two weeks was confined to her bed. She was a very patient sufferer to the last.
