

McIntosh, Donald E. d. 12-29-2003

Des Moines
Register
1-1-2004

DONALD ELLIOTT MCINTOSH

Colo

Donald Elliott McIntosh, 46, died December 29, 2003 of cancer at home. Memorial services will be 10:30 a.m. Saturday, January 3, 2004 at Colo United Methodist Church, with burial in the Colo Cemetery.

Donald was born in Nevada, Iowa and was a lifelong resident of Colo, where he worked as the General Manager of the Colo Telephone Company. He was a member of Colo United Methodist Church and church choir, Colo Fire Department, Colo First Responders, Colo Economic Development Group and Colo Businessmen's Group.

Donald served on the Colo City Council for 16 years. He loved music, singing in the choir, playing 500 and cribbage and recounting Colo and family history.

He is survived by his wife, Deborah McIntosh of Colo; daughters, Caitlin, Abby, Allison and Samantha McIntosh, all at home; son, Christopher McIntosh of Ames; parents, John and Patricia McIntosh of Colo; sister, Rhonda (Mike) Smith of Ankeny; brother, John David (Hiroko) McIntosh of Bremerton, WA; mother and father-in-law, Eugene and Ruth Elsbecker of Bancroft; uncles, Glen (Dorothy) McIntosh of Des Moines and Jim (Joan) McIntosh of San Diego, CA; and many nieces and nephews.

Visitation is from 3 to 7 p.m. Friday, January 2 at the church, where a Prayer service will be held at 7 p.m.

 <http://www.nevadajournal.com/site/news.cfm?brd=2033>

January 08, 2004

Donald Elliott McIntosh

May 27, 1957, to Dec. 29, 2003

Donald Elliott McIntosh, 46, of Colo, died at his home from cancer on Dec. 29, 2003.

He was born May 27, 1957, in Nevada and was a lifelong resident of Colo. He worked as general manager of the Colo Telephone Company, and was a member of the Colo United Methodist Church, Colo City Council for 16 years, Colo Fire Department, Colo First Responders, Colo Economic Development Group, the church choir and the Colo Businessmen's Group. He loved music, singing in the choir, playing 500 and Cribbage and recounting Colo history and family history.

Survivors include his wife, Deborah, of Colo; daughters, Caitlin, Abby, Allison and Samantha, all at home; a son, Christopher, of Ames; his parents, John and Patricia McIntosh of Colo; a sister, Rhonda (and Mike) Smith of Ankeny; a brother, John David (Hiroko) McIntosh of Bremerton, Wash.; and his mother- and father-in-law, Ruth and Eugene Elsbecker of Bancroft.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Jan. 3, at Colo United Methodist Church. Burial was in the Colo Cemetery. Fredregill Funeral Home, Zearing, handled arrangements.

©Nevada Journal 2004

OBITUARIES

Donald Elliott McIntosh, 46

Donald Elliott McIntosh, 46, Colo, died at his home on Dec. 29, 2003 from cancer.

Services were held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 3, 2004 at the Colo United Methodist Church. Burial followed at the Colo Cemetery.

Born in Nevada, Don was a life-long Colo resident. He was the general manager of the Colo Telephone Company.

He was a member of the Colo United Methodist Church, the Colo City Council for 16 years, the Colo Fire Department, Colo First Responders, Colo Economic Development Group, church choir and Colo Businessmen's Group.

Don loved music, singing in the choir, playing 500 and cribbage, recounting Colo history and family history.

He is survived by his wife Deborah McIntosh and daughters Caitlin, Abby, Allison and Samantha McIntosh, all at home; a son, Christopher McIntosh of Ames; parents John and Patricia McIntosh of Colo; sister Rhonda (Mike) Smith of Ankeny; brother John David (Hiroko) McIntosh of Bremerton, WA; mother and father-in-law Eugene and Ruth Elbecker of Brancroft; uncles Glen (Dorothy) McIntosh, Des Moines and Jim (Joan) McIntosh of San Diego, CA; and many nieces and nephews.

Fredregill Funeral Home of Zearing was in charge of arrangements.