Nancy was born November 23, 1914, the daughter of Andrew Gold and Nelle Jane (Miller) McKay. She graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1932. Nancy attended Iowa State University for two years and then worked for Western Grocer Company in Des Moines. There she met her husband, Charles "Joe" Hull. The couple married September 11, 1937, in Des Moines, and moved to Marshalltown in 1944. Later in life she worked for Jeane's Dress Shop and then joined her husband at Willard's Furs and Fashions and worked as a bookkeeper and buyer until 1995. She and her husband resided at 708 Summit Street from the time they moved to Marshalltown until their death.

Nancy began dancing at the age of four and continued to perform as a professional acrobatic dancer throughout the state of Iowa until she attended Iowa State University. She was an avid bridge player and enjoyed reading all of her life. She enjoyed listening to all types of music, especially Dixieland, Big Band and Bluegrass. Nancy loved sports and following her sons, as Marshalltown Bobcats, and always watching Iowa Hawkeye football and basketball. She still traveled to see her sons, grandchildren and grand dogs in Montana and Arizona and even went white water rafting at age 93. Nancy valued her independence but most of all enjoyed life to its fullest and being with her family and friends whom she loved so much.

Mrs. Hull was a very active member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church since 1944 and was a member of the choir for over 50 years. She was past president and member of Assistance League and chaired many of the early Charity Ball events. Nancy was instrumental in starting several PEO chapters in Marshalltown, served as president in various years and was a current member of Chapter NU. She was a current member of Starfa and American Glass Club. She served on many other community boards in Marshalltown during her lifetime.

Nancy will be dearly missed by her sons, McKay (Elizabeth) Hull of Billings MT, Willard (Janie) Hull of Billings, MT, Andrew (Vicki) Hull of Phoenix, AZ, Jonathan (Christine) Hull of Marshalltown; 13 grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren, all of whom will miss Nancy until they see her in heaven.

Nancy was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Charles Joseph Hull, brother, John Andrew McKay, and sister Margaret Esther Smock.
