G. Vivian Bordenkircher

May 20, 1912, to Dec. 13, 2002

G. Vivian Bordenkircher, 90, of Nevada, died of complications from diabetes on Friday, Dec. 13, at Story County Long Term Care, where she had resided since January of 1997.

She was born May 20, 1912, in St. Louis County, Mo., to Alex Robert and Mary Alice (Trueman) McKnight. She married Otto Bordenkircher on July 3, 1935, in Chicago. She retired in the mid-1980s as a legal secretary for Frank Ambrose. After her retirement, she worked at the Nevada Public Library. She was a member of the St. Patrick's Catholic Church and Auxiliary Guild. She enjoyed reading. She had been a resident of Nevada since 1963.

Survivors include a son, Jim Bordenkircher of North Highlands, Calif.; a daughter, Terry Simmons of St. Paul, Minn.; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents and her husband, Otto, on Nov. 30, 1983.

A prayer service was held Tuesday, Dec. 17, at Chet Ryan Mortuary. Burial followed in the St. Patrick's Catholic Cemetery. A memorial fund has been established for the Nevada Public Library.
