

Christian, Ruth D.

DEATHS

RUTH DOLLIE CHRISTAIN

Ruth Christain, 67, of Collins, died of cancer Saturday, Feb. 4, 1984, at the Iowa Lutheran Hospital in Des Moines.

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 7 at the Collins Christian Church with Rev. Eldon Ringle officiating. Burial will be at the Collins Evergreen Cemetery.

Ruth Dollie Mercer was born on April 12, 1916 to John and Dollie Mercer in Des Moines. She was a retiree of Donnelley Marketing, a member of the Collins Christian Church and the VFW Auxiliary. She lived in the Collins and Maxwell areas for the past 25 years.

She is survived by her parents, John and Dollie Mercer of Des Moines; two sons, John of Maxwell and Bill of Nevada; two daughters, Sandy Baldwin of Collins and Beverly Newmire of Hollister, Mo.; one sister, Margaret Faige of Pleasantville; 11 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Visitation will be held at the Cooper Funeral Home in Maxwell from 11 a.m. Monday until Tuesday at noon.

RUTH D. CHRISTAIN

The Register's Iowa News Service

COLLINS, IA. — Services for Ruth Dollie Christain, 67, of Collins, who died Saturday of cancer at a Des Moines hospital, will be at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Collins Christian Church. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery here.

Mrs. Christain, a native of Des Moines, was a retired employee of the R. H. Donnelley Corp. at Nevada. Survivors include her parents, John and Dollie Mercer of Des Moines; two sons, Billy Joe of Nevada and John David of Maxwell; two daughters, Beverly Newmire of Hollister, Mo., and Sondra Boldwin of Collins; 11 grandchildren; a great-grandson; and a sister, Margaret Feige of Pleasantville.

Friends may call at the Cooper Funeral Home in Maxwell.

Nevada
Journal
1984